TAKING A BALL TO THE SQUEEZES.—A certain boiler from one of our rolling mills went to Pittsburgh some time since and got a job in the Johnstown mill, which is a very large mill, having three setts of aqueezers. The boys, to have a joke on the Wheeling man, fixed the railway so as to run the ball all around the mill, and when the heat was ready his partner told him to get the tongs and take the ball down. He got all ready and started and went clear around the mill and back to the furnace. His partner wanted to know why he did not put the ball in the squeezera. The Wheeling man replied that there were none in the mill, but he soon found out the joke and told his partner and the reat if they would say nothing about it he would treat to all the beer they wanted. But the joke was too good to be kept. TAKING A BALL TO THE EQUEEZERS

An Island Woman's Original Idea.

the reasoning to flies. She thinks that by beginning early in the season, when flies are scarce, and killing each insect as it appears, she can keep her house clear of the annoyance altogether. All depends upon beginning in time. Thus far she has kept shead of the flies, killing each one as it appears, and she is full of faith. How the case will stand in July is another thing. There may be weak points in her reasoning.

THE SEWER ON ZAME STREET.—The large sewer on Zame street, Island, which starts, we believe, at Luken's corner and runs towards the river, for some reason inscrutable to everybody not of Councilmanic astuteness, was made to terminate in the low, flat piece of ground just north of the Suspension bridge. The peculiar intent of the Council in that piece of underground legislation is to this day an unsolved conundrum. The result, however, can be seen and smelled by all menwhose eyes and nose a are in a normal whose eyes and nose s are in a normal condition. A right good potato patch has been turned into a swamp from which arises the mephitic vapors of a cess pool. It is about time that the sewer was extended to the river.

"WAITIN', ONLY WAITIN." "-A few "WAITIN', ONLY WAITIS.'"—A few days since a young gent entered a well known tonsorial establishment and requested a shave. One of the barbers submerged the customer's countenance in a bed of lather, and then went to the window, sat down, and began reading a newspaper. Ten minutes passed by, "Here," demanded the patient youth in the chair, "why ain't you shawing me? What in thunder are you doing?" Calmly spoke the knight of the rator, not looking up from his paper: "Waitin' for the beard to grow, sir!" And then a white-faced, unshaven young man rose up and leaned over the wash basio.

Church this evening, for the benefit of the Children's Home, his sub-ject being "Buried Cities of the Old World." Mr. DeHass' powers of decla-mation, and the interest with which he clothes his theme, are well known to the Wheeling public, and should insure him a full house. The object of the lecture, too, will not be overlooked, as the pro-ceeding to a deserving and popular charitable institution.

LEG BROKEN WHILE WRESTLING .-LEG BROKEN WHILE WRESTLING.—
About half-past eight o'clock last evening, Christy Farley and Edward Costello engaged in a friendly wrestling match on 18th street, in East Wheeling. Costello was thrown to the ground by Farley with such force that the former's leg was fractured in two places. The injured man was carried to his home on 17th street and properly cared for. During the scuffle Costello lost a $10 gold piece, which he prized very highly.

MADAME D'Esta's Red Stocking Minstrels, which were announced to give a make any contract with them those houses will be found closed against them.

The boat race proposed between Louis Felsinger, of this city, and Nick Layberger, of Pittsburgh, may yet pan out, if the Pittsburgh man comes promptly to the scratch. Felsinger's friends have put up $300, which they sak Layberger's admirers to cover or forever after hold their peace. The Wheeling boys mean business, and are anxious for a race. An ASTONISHING FACT.—A large proportion of the American people are to-day dying from the effects of Dyspepsia or disordered liver. The result of these diseases upon the masses of intelligent and valuable people is most alarming, making life actually a burden instead of a pleasant existence of enjoyment and usefulness as it ought to be. There is no good reason for this, if you will only throw aside prejudice and akepticism, take the advice of Druggists and your friends, and try one bottle of Green's August Flower. Your speedy retief is certain. Millions of bottles of this medicine have been given away to try its virtues, with satisfactory results in every case. You can bay a sample bottle for 10 cents to try. Three doese will relieve the worst case. Positively sold by all Druggists on the Western Continent. codaw
